ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Dr. Uypitching was born in Cleveland, grew up in the Philippines, and now lives in Los Angeles.

She traces her interest in medicine to the many special people she's met along the way. "They motivated me to make a difference," she says.

Dr. Uypitching is committed to community service and has served as a volunteer physician for HOPE Worldwide in the Philippines, Project Africa Global in Swaziland, the Los Angeles Marathon, and the Los Angeles Health Fair.

She has also been a volunteer lecturer for Peace4Kids in Los Angeles.

When she's not treating patients, Dr. Uypitching enjoys traveling, especially to destinations that offer her favorite sport: scuba diving.
